Called to the mission of Jesus by Baptism, nourished by God's Word and Sacraments, we join to celebrate our faith and to continue Christ's mission of love, justice and service. As good stewards, guided by the Holy Spirit, we believe we are called to be Christ to one another, sharing our time, talent, and treasure with our community and the world, especially with those less fortunate.

Prayer for our Parish

Lord Jesus Christ, I thank you for my Parish of Saint Michael.
My parish is composed of people like me.
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am,
It will be holy if I am.
Its pews will be filled if I help fill them.
It will do great work if I work,
It will be prayerful if I pray.
It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.
It will bring others into worship if I invite and bring them in.
It will be a place of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy, if I who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.
Amen

From the Deacon's Desk

Growing up, my father would often challenge us kids to try and look outside the box, to see how something could be improved or repaired. This came from his work as a quality engineer, where he was always looking for ways to improve a product or process. This could take many forms, from better training to new equipment to eliminating redundancies and bottlenecks in production. Whatever he did required a change to occur to make things better. In life, the Church often acts as the moral quality control department and Jesus is the department head. He reminds us that the life of a Christian is one of continuous improvement, that we will have to change how we act and think to be better followers of him. The Samaritan town in today's Gospel did not want to hear this message, and so refused him entry not just to their town, but also into their hearts. They wanted the status quo, and Jesus' message would have required a change in how they lived. We as Christians are called to change our lives from focusing only on what is good for me, to what is good for the community. How can I help my neighbor? What skills or talents do I have that could assist those around me? What resources can I share with those who do not have them? The good news is that we do not have to figure this out on our own. We just need to contact the heavenly quality control department; they already have some ideas for what we can do to make improvements in our life.

My dear friends in Christ,

This past Tuesday, the Church celebrated the martyrdom of Saint Thomas More. Chancellor of England, Sir Thomas was admired by all, and a favorite of the King. But when he would not side with the King against the Church, he was stripped of his titles, imprisoned and, in the end, beheaded. Throughout that entire process, the King kept pursuing Thomas to join him in betraying his adherence to Church teaching, offering him, at one time, up to half of his possessions. To his part, Sir Thomas, although imprisoned and sentenced to death by King Henry, remained devoted to him as his King. In his last words, Sir Thomas stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first". In a world where so many people and things are vying for our attention and devotion, how wonderful it would be to utter those same sentiments – "God's first!".

This weekend brings to a close my first year as your pastor. Over this past year, I have been called to assume a variety of roles for our diocesan Church – Vicar for Missionary Discipleship, Coordinator for the Eucharistic Revival, Director of the Annual Diocesan Appeal, and most recently, Director of Stewardship and Development for the diocese. Each of these roles has been a joy and a challenge. I have greatly appreciated my time working with Bishop Bonnar and the diocesan staff as we prepare our local Church of Youngstown for a bright today, and an even brighter tomorrow. But the role and title I treasure most is that of Pastor. As with my diocesan ministries, serving as Pastor of Saint Michael has been a joy and a challenge. Bishop Bonnar has described his becoming Bishop of Youngstown like jumping onto a moving train. Certainly, the same could be said for my arrival last year. In fact, since I descend from three generations of railroaders, and my first pastorate was a parish founded by several railroading families, I quite like the analogy. In the early days of the parish, there wasn't even track, let alone a train – but the plans for a trip were made. And now, for 60 years, the parish of Saint Michael has been on a wonderful journey. While we know the final destination of our journey is the Kingdom, we have no idea how long that journey will be here on earth. So we, as good and faithful stewards of God's gifts and blessings, must make ready for a long journey. While we cannot anticipate every event, activity, and challenge that may come our way, we must be as prepared as possible.

I have had many conversations over this past year regarding the parish. I believe two can best illustrate my approach for the parish. One comment was surprise that I appeared more concerned with the physical plant of the parish, as opposed to the ministries of the parish. I regret if it has ever appeared that it was a one over the other. We have looked at our religious education program, our outreach to our youth, increasing our social opportunities as a parish family, as well as adding various service aspects. But I understand each of those areas affects only those who participate in them. On the contrary, everyone who comes to Mass sees "the building". More recently, I had a conversation where I stated that I hope my concern for the physical campus, with its many issues, is never misconstrued as negative. My desire is to address the buildings, the property, the ministries, the social and service components of our parish in a positive and forthright manner, preparing for a journey well into the future.

This is indeed a truly wonderful parish, but, like others, we have our issues. It is no one's fault, nor is it an attack on any previous plans, or approaches, or programs. As stated, our journey is forward, ultimately toward the Kingdom, but always forward, not back to any year prior. While some may think there has been too much change already, I feel at times we have been stuck at the depot, waiting for the tracks to be cleared, just wanting to yell, "full steam ahead!".

With that said, when it comes to the catechetical and sacramental life of the Church, we will continue to work with our children and families to the best of our abilities. But like Sir Thomas, we need to arrive at a point where it's "God first!". Bishop Bonnar has stated that "when you have a policy, it's not personal". This is very true. It is never personal when we follow the guidelines for sacraments, godparents, sponsors, weddings, etc. I don't play favorites – I follow the rules. When it comes to the buildings and campus – my doctoral dissertation entitled "The Development of a Model of Catholic Stewardship in the Physical, Spiritual, and Ministerial Revitalization of a Parish Community" (I know – what a mouthful), began with the premise that "ministry needs a place from which to happen". And those places should accommodate us now, and well into the future. Work will continue to happen in the Church, for the most important building is where we gather to hear the Word, be nourished with the Eucharist, and sent forth on Mission. But we need to address everything else, including a new residence for future pastors (I'll hang out there until the 7th pastor of Saint Michael arrives - in 20 years of so!).

Being self-aware is a critical component for anyone, but especially a pastor. I know that I am direct, sometimes frustrated, not always able to tolerate the "this is how we've always done it" syndrome, and very driven in what I believe is the best way forward. But I also try to celebrate a prayerful Mass, offer what I hope on occasion are decent homilies, and I have nothing but the best of intentions in moving our parish forward for a time when each of us has reached our final destination, but others continue to ride the train that is Saint Michael. Thank you for a wonderful first year. May God bless us in our journey together for many years to come. On wings we rise, Father Lavelle Generations of Faith Program needs some good people!

Our faith formation program needs some wonderful people to lead the children's sessions of Generations of Faith.

The role of the leader of the children's sessions is that of a catechist. A catechist is a faithful lifelong learner who wants to be a part of the journey of faith for others, including children and youth. A catechist is someone who works well with their partner to present the lessons provided in an engaging and positive manner. A catechist is someone who wants to share their faith and learn along with the children or youth in their group.

You do not need to be an expert. You do not need to have prior experience. You do not need to have all the answers. You do need to attend Mass and Holy Days of Obligation. You do need to have a desire to work with children or youth. You do need to be open to the Holy Spirit calling you to active participation in Generations of Faith.

This is an opportunity to share and learn with the children and youth of our parish. You will be working with a partner to present the pre-written lessons. You will be given training, resources and support throughout the year.

Call Marcy at the parish office to set up an appointment to discuss this exciting opportunity to be a part of the Generations of Faith Catechetical Team.

LIGHT UP THE CHURCH CAMPAIGN

After much discussion, we are ready to move forward with replacing and upgrading the lighting in the Church. The plan calls for the installation of a lighting panel (something we do not have currently); new chandeliers in the main body of the Church, as well as the front gathering space; new lighting on both side sections, as well as the Holy Family Shrine and the Blessed Sacrament; new lighting for the sanctuary and the Crucifix, the Risen Christ, and Archangel Window. Each aspect of the project involves additional work on wiring and other equipment, especially where there currently are no lights. To assist in making this project more feasible for the parish finances, we are inviting sponsors for the project. Sponsors will be included in a plaque, which will also include the mosaic and marble donors to the recent sanctuary project and will be similar to the current plaques for the Stained Glass and Stations of the Cross donors. All levels of sponsorship are named for liturgical music including "light" in the title. Just a little note, if this is not a project you are interested in sponsoring, but are looking to provide support in the future, our next project will be new kneelers and refinishing the existing pews in the center section of the Church. Stay tuned.

The "Lumen Christi - Light of Christ" sponsorship is $20,000 – this covers the cost of installing the lighting panel which controls all the lighting in the Church. This will be the Lead Sponsor.
The "Let There Be Light" sponsorship is $15,000 – this provides for all the lighting in the sanctuary, as well as the Holy Family and Blessed Sacrament shrines.
The "We are the Light of the World" sponsorship is $10,000 – these are the large chandeliers in the main body of the Church. There are 8 available sponsorships.
The "Christ, Be Our Light" sponsorship is $6,000 – this for the lighting on the side sections of the Church. There are 2 available sponsorships.
The "This Little Light of Mine" sponsorship is $4,000 – these are the chandeliers in the front gathering space. There are 5 available sponsorships.
The "I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light" sponsorship is $4,000 – this provides the lighting on the Risen Christ and the Archangels Window.
