THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Can. 998 The anointing of the sick, by which the Church commends the faithful who are dangerously ill to the suffering and glorified Lord in order that he relieve and save them, is conferred by anointing them with oil and pronouncing the words prescribed in the liturgical books.

Can. 1002 The communal celebration of the anointing of the sick for many of the sick at once, who have been suitably prepared and are properly disposed, can be performed according to the prescripts of the diocesan bishop. It is highly recommended that when this is celebrated people participate, thus alleviating the difficulties of waiting. See announcement below.

THE MINISTER OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Can. 1003 §1. Every priest and a priest alone validly administers the anointing of the sick. Only an ordained priest can administer the sacrament – deacons and lay people are not permitted to do so.

§2. All priests to whom the care of souls has been entrusted have the duty and right of administering the anointing of the sick for the faithful entrusted to their pastoral office. For a reasonable cause, any other priest can administer this sacrament with at least the presumed consent of the priest mentioned above.

THOSE ON WHOM THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK IS TO BE CONFERRED

Can. 1004 §1. The anointing of the sick can be administered to a member of the faithful who, having reached the use of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age. The use of the word "begins" provides for the celebration of the sacrament not to be delayed. Too often, people are under the impression that the term "last rites" means to wait until the last moment. In this age of fewer and fewer priests, some with more than one parish and others with mor than one role which takes them out of the parish, waiting until the near end may result in people not receiving the sacrament. It is imperative that the sacrament is arranged for early on in the illness.

§2. This sacrament can be repeated if the sick person, having recovered, again becomes gravely ill or if the condition becomes more grave during the same illness.

Can. 1006 This sacrament is to be conferred on the sick who at least implicitly requested it when they were in control of their faculties.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK MASS

There will be a Communal Anointing of the Sick Mass on Sunday, November 6, 2022 at 2:00pm in the Church. A light luncheon will follow in the Family Life Center. If you are planning to attend, please contact the office so we can prepare both the Church and the Center for the proper number. The Church will be arranged with seating in every other row, to allow the priest to come to each person for both the anointing and communion.

Young at Heart

If you didn't put in a reservation but still want to come to our first Young at Heart gathering, please join us. We will gather for Mass at 11:30 this coming Monday, October 10, 2022 , with a program and lunch to follow. The cost of the luncheon is $5.00 and can be paid that day.

Just a Reminder. There will be no daily Mass next week, October 11-14, and the following week on Monday or Tuesday, October 17 & 18. Thank you for understanding.

Adult Education

Please join us for our next adult faith formation event as we explore and learn about some saints who have a particular devotion to the Eucharist. Our church is in the midst of a national Eucharistic Revival which aims to inspire us to rekindle our relationship with the living Christ in the Eucharist.

On Wednesday, October 19, from 6:30 – 8:00 pm, we will gather in the parish hall to learn about several saints who are deeply connected to the Eucharist, and to let them lead us into a more profound encounter with Christ.

From the Deacon's Desk

This past Friday the Church celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. This is a very interesting feast day as it is not based on an apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary, nor even an event in her life like the Annunciation or Assumption. No, this particular Feast Day is unique as it commemorates a military victory – The victory of several allied Catholic navies versus the invading Ottoman Empire at the Battle of Lepanto. In context, the Ottoman Empire had been advancing rapidly across the remnants of the Byzantine Empire and was now encroaching on Western Europe and was preparing to invade the Italian peninsula. Pope Pius V had called for an alliance to fend off the invading forces, and personally blessed the allied fleet as it headed out. The fleet was significantly smaller than the Turkish Navy, so the Holy Father also called upon the people of Christian Europe to pray the Rosary and ask for the Blessed Mother's intercession for success. Following the news of the victory, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary and Our Lady of Victory was established as October 7th the date of the battle. What battles do we fight in our own lives? What fears keep us checked in place? Whatever they are, we can bring them to God in prayer. And if we feel that we can not do it on our own we can ask for the Blessed Mother to pray for our intentions as well. Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us. Our Lady of Victory, pray for us.

Spotlight on Catechists

Barbara Cummings

"My name is Barbara Cummings, wife to Michael and mother to two grown children, Jacob and Grace who have also gone through our GoF program. Being a recent "empty nester", I am so grateful for the religious education my family has received at Saint Michael. It has been a core foundation to their adult lives, and I wanted to contribute in helping to mold the faith of the young children of our church. While seeking an increase in the virtues of faith, hope, and charity this gives me this blessed opportunity to strengthen and deepen my own relationship with Christ".
Mrs. Cummings is a first-time catechist with the fifth and sixth graders on Monday evenings.

Leigh Anne Zielinski

Mrs. Zielinski is in pharmaceutical sales by profession. This is her fourth year as a GoF catechist and leads the third and fourth graders on Monday evening. Why did I say "yes" to being part of the GoF Team? "I said YES to being part of the GoF Team because I wanted to find a way to give back to our community and serve the church while doing so. I enjoy helping others and as a mom of four, I was attending GoF with my own children, so I decided to take it one step further. Offering my help as a catechist for GoF was truly the perfect fit! It's both an honor and a privilege to know that I'm impacting young lives in a positive, faith-focused manner while also gaining many new friendships along the way."

Knights of Columbus Football Crazr Tickets

The Knights of Columbus will sell Football Crazr tickets at all Masses this weekend, October 8/9, and next weekend, October 15/16. Tickets cost $20, and proceeds benefit Knights of Columbus charities.
