FROM THE PASTOR . . .

*The is the day the Lord has made,
let us rejoice and be glad! Alleluia, Alleluia!!*

After 40 days of our Lenten journey, complete with sacred traditions of fasting, prayer and alms-giving; after having gathered in the Upper Room to be nourished with Christ’s own Body, and witnessing the call to ministry; after having stood before the cross in humble veneration, and having offered solemn prayer for the entire world; after waiting the in dark and silence of the tomb – we run to bask in the dazzling light of the Resurrection of our Lord. Yes indeed, this is a day in which to rejoice and be glad. But if we seek the eternal resurrection, we must be willing to also invite the disciplines of these past weeks and days into our daily living. Increased prayer, acts of charity, and self-denial must be constants in our lives, as well as desire to humble ourselves before the cross and seek the nourishment that only Christ can offer, is the way in which we move beyond the darkness of this world into the Light of the Risen Lord. On this Easter day, let us also pray for the many who have gone before us to the eternal Kingdom, especially those listed for whom our Easter environment has been memorialized. Happy Easter, Father Lavelle

God of glory, the eyes of all turn to us as we celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death. Bless us and this food for our Easter meal. May we who gather at the Lord's table continue to celebrate the joy of his resurrection and be admitted finally to his heavenly banquet.

"This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!" While some of us gather in the radiant glow of Easter morn, at the celebration of the Easter Vigil, the assembly literally moves from darkness into light. But we know that for many of our brothers and sisters – there is no movement. They continue to live in darkness. The darkness of hunger, the darkness of unemployment, the darkness of illness and neglect, the darkness of worry and concern for their children. The invitation to revel in the bright light of the Resurrection is also a calling to extend that light to others. In supporting the Annual Diocesan Appeal: One in Hope, One in Mission, we are able to bring that light to those in need. If you have not yet made a prayerful response to the Appeal, please take some time to reflect on your ability to participate and complete the pledge card portion printed in this weekend's bulletin or visit www.doy.org and click on the Diocesan Appeal button. To date, the members of our parish have pledged $87,648 toward our parish goal of $107,000. This is from 209 families on our parish. All dollars raised remain within the six counties of our diocesan community to assist in the work of charity and extending the mission of the Church. On behalf of Bishop Bonnar and all who will be served by the Annual Diocesan Appeal – THANK YOU! Have a blessed Easter – may the season of Resurrection bring us all new light and life – Alleluia, Alleluia!!
