POPE LEO XIV

This weekend, as we celebrate the Inauguration of His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV as the Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, let us take a moment to familiarize ourselves with his official portrait, papal signature, and his coat of arms.

The Vatican unveiled Pope Leo XIV's official portrait and signature Saturday last Saturday. That is the portrait that continues to grace our Sanctuary through the Masses this weekend and is on the cover of the bulletin today. The formal portrait shows the 69-year-old pope wearing the red mozzetta (short cape), embroidered papal stole (with embroidery of the papal insignia of keys and tiara, along with symbols of the four evangelists), and golden pectoral cross.

The Vatican published the portrait alongside the pope's personal signature, which includes the notation "P.P." — an abbreviation traditionally used in papal signatures that stands for "Pastor Pastorum" ("Shepherd of Shepherds").

Pope Leo's Coat of Arms

The heraldic design features a fleur-de-lis on a blue background, symbolizing the Virgin Mary, while the right side displays a heart pieced by an arrow, resting on a book against a cream background. This is based on the traditional symbol of the Augustinian order. The fleur-de-lis has particular significance in Catholic iconography as a symbol of purity and the Virgin Mary. The three-petaled lily design has also been connected to the Holy Trinity. It is prominently featured in French heraldry, which may hold personal meaning for the pope, who has French ancestry through his father's lineage. Beneath the shield runs a scroll displaying the pope's episcopal motto: "In illo uno unum" ("In the one Christ we are one"), a phrase taken from St. Augustine's commentary on Psalm 127. The motto reflects Leo's roots in the Augustinian order and his commitment to unity in the Church.

These profound presentations of papal symbols — the portrait, signature, and coat of arms — traditionally occur in the early days of a new pontificate and provide insights into the theological priorities and pastoral style the new pope intends to emphasize.

"...we pray for our new pope, Pope Leo XIV, may God bless him abundantly so that he may courageously echo the promise and vision of Jesus and be a holy shepherd of peace and light always striving to build bridges and realize the great priestly prayer of Jesus, "That All May Be One."

Bishop David Bonnar

Congratulations to the young people who joined us at the table of the Lord for the first time this weekend.

May you always know the PEACE of Jesus, the LIGHT of his love and the JOY of his life within you.

FIRST STEP FOR CHANGE

Catholic Charities will hold its annual First Step for Change campaign from Mother's Day through Father's Day, honoring the faith, humility and love it takes to raise a child, and recognizing that many parents lack adequate financial resources for their children. Funds raised through this campaign assist low-income expectant parents and families with food, formula, clothing, diapers, and other items essential to a child's health, safety and well-being.

FIRST STEP PACKETS are included in this week's bulletin. Additional packets are at the entrances of the church. Please take some time to learn about the program, prayerfully consider a gift, and return your envelopes to our parish by June 30.

All money collected by our parish will help to meet the needs of our own community!

Thank you for joining us in supporting this pro-life campaign.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

If you would like to have your child baptized please call the parish office. Parents must be registered parishioners and attend Mass regularly. Parents may need to attend a Baptism Class usually held on the last Wednesday of the month. Godparents must provide a letter of suitability from the parish where they are registered. One godparent must be Catholic.

SEMINARIAN SUPPORT

Thank you to all who contributed to our Seminarian Support Collection last weekend.

For the benefit of their formation, our seminarians are not allowed to hold outside jobs during the summer but are assigned to parish ministry. During the year they assist at diocesan events and speak at parishes and schools. For this work, we also help them with fuel and mileage reimbursements. Some seminarians take on private tutoring in Spanish to help them in their ministry assignments. Your donations will be used to cover these costs.

Thank you all for your continued prayers and support of our seminarians and please continue to pray for an increase in all vocations.

For more information about seminarians in our diocese visit <https://doy.org/seminarians/>

STEWARDSHIP – May 18, 2025

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know, or someone that doesn't look like you.

VOCATIONS – May 18, 2025

"I give you a new commandment: love one another." (John 13:34)

Love is at the heart of every vocation. Take time to reflect on how God may be inviting you to live out His new commandment of love in a way that serves others. What does that call look like for you?

John 14:23-29

YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

Registration is under way for the 2025-2026 Faith Formation year. Returning families should have their registration packet. If you are new to the parish or have a child entering Kindergarten or First Grade call Marcy at the parish office for information about YFF and to request a registration packet.

First Grade is required in order to prepare for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist in second grade. It is expected that grades three through seven are completed before entering eighth grade and Confirmation preparations.

Kindergarten is not required but highly encouraged. We limit the Kindergarten class to 10 children. If you are considering registering your child for Kindergarten YFF, be sure to get your registration packet in early to ensure a spot for your child.

YFF Summer Passport Cards

We ended YFF on April 13 with a Jubilee Year Celebration. Every child received a passport card to use over the summer with activities to keep the joy of the Jubilee going throughout the summer. Check the YFF webpage for new activity ideas for the "Free Spot" on the passport cards June and July.

Extra passport cards are available in the parish office if you misplace your card. Remember to bring your marked card to the opening YFF class on September 7 for a special surprise treat.
