Called to the mission of Jesus by Baptism, nourished by God's Word and Sacraments, we join to celebrate our faith and to continue Christ's mission of love, justice and service. As good stewards, guided by the Holy Spirit, we believe we are called to be Christ to one another, sharing our time, talent, and treasure with our community and the world, especially with those less fortunate.

Green Eggs and Ham

Doctor Seuss would be so proud.

We collected 109 hams and enough green beans to serve 3 soup kitchens for the rest of the year!

Thank you for your continued generosity for these people who need us as well as we need them.

If you are interested in bringing up the gifts in the Offertory Procession, please see the ushers before Mass begins.

From the Pastor...

This weekend, as we bring to a close the Octave of Easter, we continue to be witnesses of Sacramental grace begun last Saturday at the Easter Vigil. If I have made it back safely from a four day respite from the business of Easter, and to celebrate my birthday, I have already celebrated a wedding at Mount Carmel, and now we are celebrating First Eucharist at the 4:00pm and 11:00am Masses (we will continue next weekend as well). We also have two baptisms at the 9:00am Mass. What a truly wonderful way to extend the celebrating of Easter. With all of this happening this weekend, I want to note that I am actually writing this column after the Easter Vigil last Saturday. Everyone has gone home and the doors are locked, and I'm catching up on some work that took a backseat to everything that needed to get done leading up to the Triduum. Even though I have yet to celebrate the two Masses for Easter Sunday, I am sitting here in a true sense of happiness and joy. I recently mentioned that I did not know that last Easter would be my last Easter at Mount Carmel – Bishop Bonnar asked me to join his staff and come to Saint Michael on the Monday after the Octave of Easter last year. And there is always great wonder about how days like the Triduum will play out in a new setting – for both you and me. I have often said that when it comes to liturgy – I do what's in red (the staging part of liturgy, if you will); say what's in black (the words prescribed to the celebrant in the Roman Missal); and try to have a good homily. But there is certainly far more to it than that. I think the environment, the music, and the assembly, along with other aspects are very important. Thank you to everyone for your prayerful and enthusiastic participation in our celebrations of Holy Week. It is a joy to have journeyed with you through these days. I pray that the remaining weeks of the Easter season, leading us to Pentecost – the commemoration of the Birth of the Church, will be ones in which we truly focus our hearts and minds on what it means to be part of the greater Church of Christ. We are truly blessed to be the parish family of Saint Michael, but we can never allow the recognition of that blessing to end there. We are also incredibly blessed to be part of a diocesan community, focused on many gifts in the Church, most especially the work of charity and the goal of extending the mission and ministry of the Church beyond ourselves. And we are part of a Universal Church, reveling in the traditions and customs of our faith, but always with a desire to bring them alive for us in this present age, with the shining example of Pope Francis. Thank you again for a blessed Triduum. A continued Happy Easter to you all. I hope I made it back so we can continue to praise our Resurrected Lord together.
God Bless – Father Lavelle

Song Book Sponsorship

We are asking members of the parish to consider sponsoring a book in memory or honor of someone. To assure that these people are truly remembered in prayer at each Mass, the opening announcements will ask everyone to first turn to the front cover of the book and if there is a name in memory or honor, please keep that person in prayer throughout the Mass. The cost of sponsorship is $20 each. Thank you for your generosity and remembering our loved ones in prayerful song.
